

THE 39TH GLENFARG FOLK FEAST COMES TO TOWN

For the second successive year, Kinross is to host the Glenfarg Village Folk Club's Feast, the event taking place over the weekend of 7th to 9th April and being centred around The Green Hotel. This will be the 39th such Feast and will be a prelude to a very special 40th celebration already being planned for 2018! The Committee all agree that this year's line-up is indeed very special and the event should prove to be the best for many years.

So what is on offer? Well, apart from the expected singarounds, sessions and general background of music in the hotel and village pubs, the celebrations will get underway on the Friday night with a Ceilidh-Concert to get the spirits aroused for the remainder of the weekend. The dancing will be under the lead of The Craigie Collective Ceilidh Band, although there will also be entertainment provided by invited guests. This is a new initiative for the format of the night and should add to the overall enjoyment of the attendees.

Saturday will bring a morning's guitar workshop conducted by Maurice Dickson, followed by an organised singaround, followed by the Original Song Competition, this year's theme being "Wildlife", the trophy for the event being awarded to the funniest original song of the afternoon. After the laughter has died down from that event, we have a brilliant concert at night featuring the exciting young band Dallahan, the amazing John Tams and Barry Coope, the wonderful voice of Robyn Stapleton and the Club's very own merry band of local minstrels and songsters, the Farg Folk. The line-up for this concert is quite exceptional and is guaranteed to be a sell-out.

Having thought that it couldn't get any better, Sunday starts with a special event as it will feature A Conversation with John Tams, followed by another singaround, followed by a children's entertainment featuring the amazing Artie Trezise and Ryan Moir, followed by the world famous Puff-a-Box championships! And, there will be no let up as we move to another great night at Backstage featuring the legendary Steve Tilston and Jez Lowe on stage together, the brilliant young Irish group Na Leanai, and the wonderful guitarist and singer Maurice Dickson. All in all, this promises to be another great night with another seriously sensational line-up to bring the weekend to a close.
